

CHRISTMAS TIME IN AMSTERDAM

CELEBRATE WITH EUROPE'S PR COMMUNITY AND EXPLORE ONE OF EUROPE'S MOST HISTORIC CITIES

If you're going to be in Amsterdam in December for the European Excellence Awards, you can't miss out on seeing some of the city during the beautiful, bustling Christmas period. In the winter, when Amsterdam is enveloped by snowflakes and festive lights, it possesses a romantic and captivating atmosphere.

CHRISTMAS SPIRIT

Christmas carols are a tradition in Amsterdam: the chimes of the steeples play festive melodies and carols echo throughout the streets. You should also not miss the festive lighted-boat parade with mulled wine and hot chocolate!

AMSTERDAM'S BRIDGES

Amsterdam is a city of bridges, and while you are strolling through a market or being enchanted by the fabulous Christmas lights in town, you could pay a visit to the magical illuminated bridges, which reflect themselves in the atmospheric canals of Amsterdam.

DUTCH ATMOSPHERE

On a cold winter's day, a variety of cozy places for enjoying a cup of hot chocolate, tea or coffee comes in useful. Amsterdam is famous for its snug cafés and restaurants, which only add to the festive ambience over the holiday season.

FIRST CLASS MUSEUMS

For tourists with an interest in history, Anne Frank House stands near the top of most to-do lists, and the Van Gogh and Rembrandt museums appeal to those with an interest in art and culture. You should also not miss the Heineken Experience, a more recent creation, which was recently chosen as the city's best tourist attraction.

DAM SQUARE

Dam Square lies in the historical heart of the city, and evolved over time from a dam into the town square that it is today. Frequent events in addition to several notable neighbouring buildings make it one of the most famous and important locations in the city.
